

Disaster Training

NETC - EMI

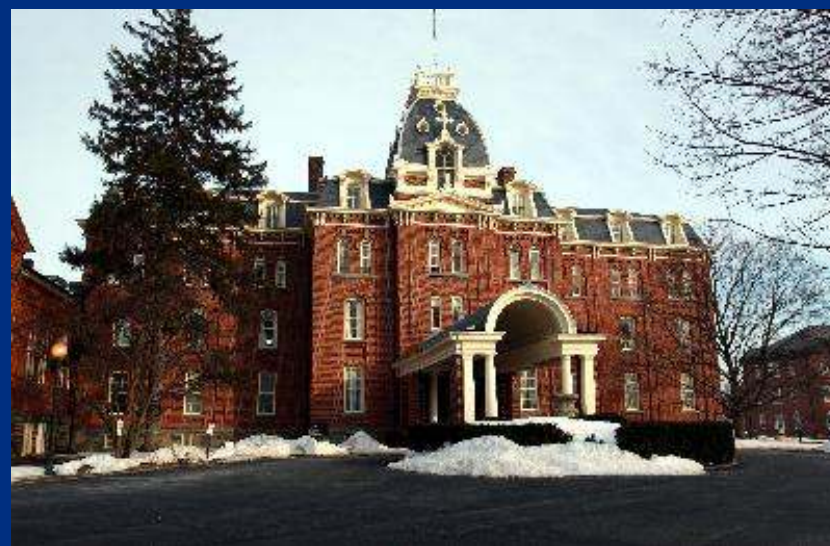

Homeland
Security

Emergency Management Institute

- 5500 attend resident courses
- 100,000 participate in non-resident courses
- Hundreds of thousands utilize distance learning

186,770

Homeland
Security

February 13, 2006

Develops and manages courses in;

- Integrated Emergency Management
- Natural Hazards
- Technological Hazards
- Professional Development
- Leadership
- Instructional Methodology
- Exercise Design and Evaluations
- Public Information
- Information Technology
- Train-The-Trainers

Homeland
Security

February 13, 2006

3

DFTO Objectives

- Ensure that disaster staff have the skills and knowledge needed to provide effective and efficient services.
- Enhance the professional expertise of disaster staff to ensure they are prepared for future deployments.

Typical Chronology

Declaration

Needs Assessment

Initial Core Training

Mandatory Training

Tailored Services

Skill and Sup. Training

Close Out Activities

Homeland
Security

February 13, 2006

5

DFTO Staff Resources

Homeland
Security

February 13, 2006

Future

- Surge Training and Cadre Response
- Pandemic Exercises and Precautions
- Goal of preparedness and trained response
- Agriculture Terrorism. Attacks on Food Supply
- Uncertain

Department of Homeland Security

Federal Response to Terrorism
and other Presidentially
Declared Events

FEMA

Homeland
Security

Homeland
Security